

Paper 4401- Hungarian History & Literature

Total: 100 Marks (70 marks: End Semester Examination; 30 marks: Internal Assessment)

1. History of Hungary before the Conquest and the Foundation of the State
2. Turkish rule over Hungary
3. Habsburg Austrian rule, 1848 Revolution, 1848/49 Freedom Struggle
4. Compromise with the Habsburgs, Austro-Hungarian Monarchy
5. World War I
6. World War II
7. 1956 Uprising
8. 1989 Round Table Discussions
9. Transition, Transformation of Forms of Property, Parliamentary Democracy
10. Hungary and the Institutions of the European Union
11. India in Hungarian Literature and Art
12. History of Hungarian Literature
13. Old Hungarian literature and literature under Turkish Occupation
14. Age of Reform and Renewal of Literature
15. Romanticism and folklore in mid-nineteenth century
16. Novel and epic poetry in the second half of the nineteenth century
17. Prose and poetry in the first generation of Nyugat (West)
18. Poetry and prose before the World War II
19. Modern literature after 1948
20. Prose and Poetry since the 1980s

Literary Biography: A detailed study of at least three writers and their works

21. Sándor Petőfi, Endre Ady, Attila József, János Pilinszky, Sándor Weöres, György Petri /or Dezső Tandori, Kálmán Mikszáth, Ferenc Molnár, Zsigmond Móricz, Margit Kaffka István Örkény, Lajos Nagy, Péter Esterházy, Péter Nádas, György Spiró, Imre Kertész, Ferenc Darvasi/or János Háy
22. Or any other writer or poet selected by the teacher
23. Literary Works: Two short stories, two poems and some extracts from a play or short play.

List of Readings:

1. Durst Péter Lépésenként magyarul (Hungarian step by step)II, Szeged, 2004
2. Valéria M. Korchmáros, Lépésenként magyarul (Hungarian Grammar – not only for Hungarians), Szeged, 2006
3. Erdős, Kozma, Prileszky: Hungarian in Words and Pictures, Budapest, 1988;
4. Ferenc Gereben ed., Magyar tükör, Segédkönyv a hungarológia oktatásához, Közép-Európa Intézet, Teleki László Alapítvány, Budapest, 1995.
5. József Goretity, Zsuzsa Laczkó, Nem csak novellák, Debreceni Nyári Egyetem, Debrecen, 1997.

6. Tibor Klaniczay, History of Hungarian Literature, Budapest, 1983.
7. L. Czigány, The Oxford History of Hungarian Literature, Oxford, 1984.
8. Péter Dávidházi, Győző Ferencz, László Kúnos & others: The Lost Rider, A bilingual anthology, Budapest, 1997.
9. Tibor Klaniczay, History of Hungarian Literature, Budapest, 1983
10. Other book selected by the Hungarian Section.